 The American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) provides a third round of stimulus checks to help people impacted by the pandemic recession. It includes direct financial relief for Americans including:

Do you qualify for another stimulus check?

- If you earned up to $80,000 in 2020 ($160,000 if married and filing jointly)
- If you earned up to $80,000 in 2020 ($160,000 if married and filing jointly)
- Each dependent on your tax return also qualifies for $1,400.
- Citizen spouses and children living in mixed-status families are also eligible.

Do you qualify for the federal child tax credit?

The American Rescue Plan act made changes to the credit for 2021.

- You qualify for the federal child tax credit if you have a child, both you and your child have a Social Security number, and you made less than $200,000 a year ($400,000 if married and filing jointly).
- If your child is under 6, you qualify for a tax credit of up to $3600.
- If your child is between 6 and 17, you qualify for a tax credit of up to $3,000.
- If you earn over $75,000 a year ($150,000 if married and filing jointly), you will receive a smaller credit of $2,000 per child
- Parents who have no income also qualify.

If you received unemployment benefits and earned less than $150,000 in 2020, the first $10,200 in unemployment payments are now nontaxable on your federal taxes. Unlike California's Golden State Stimulus, only people and dependents with Social Security numbers will qualify for federal relief. The ARPA also includes additional funding and tax credits for small businesses, rental assistance, the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, and the WIC program.
